

This is my library.

It is the Community Library of DeWitt and Jamesville.

I enter the library through the front doors and walk into the lobby.

This is my library's lobby.

If I have items to bring back to the library, I can push them through the returns drop.

This is the information desk in the lobby.

I can ask library staff members to help me or show me where things are at the information desk.

There are signs in the lobby that help me locate the entrance to the children's area.

The library has rules for everyone to follow.

I can read books in any of the chairs.

When I am in the children's room,

I can play with puppets, trains, legos,
and other toys.

When I am in the children's room,

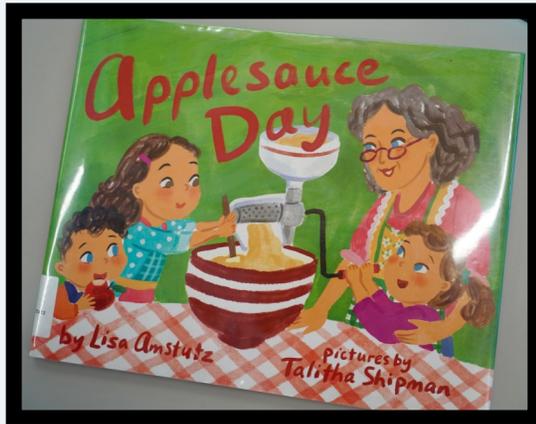

I can play on computers or iPads.

When I am in the children's room, I can look for items to borrow and take home.

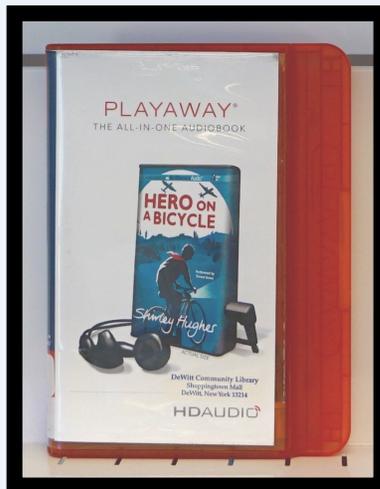

I can borrow:

Books

Audiobooks

Playaways

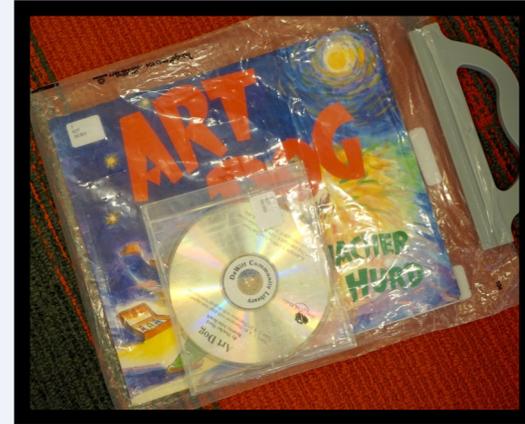

DVDs

I can borrow:

CDs

Kits

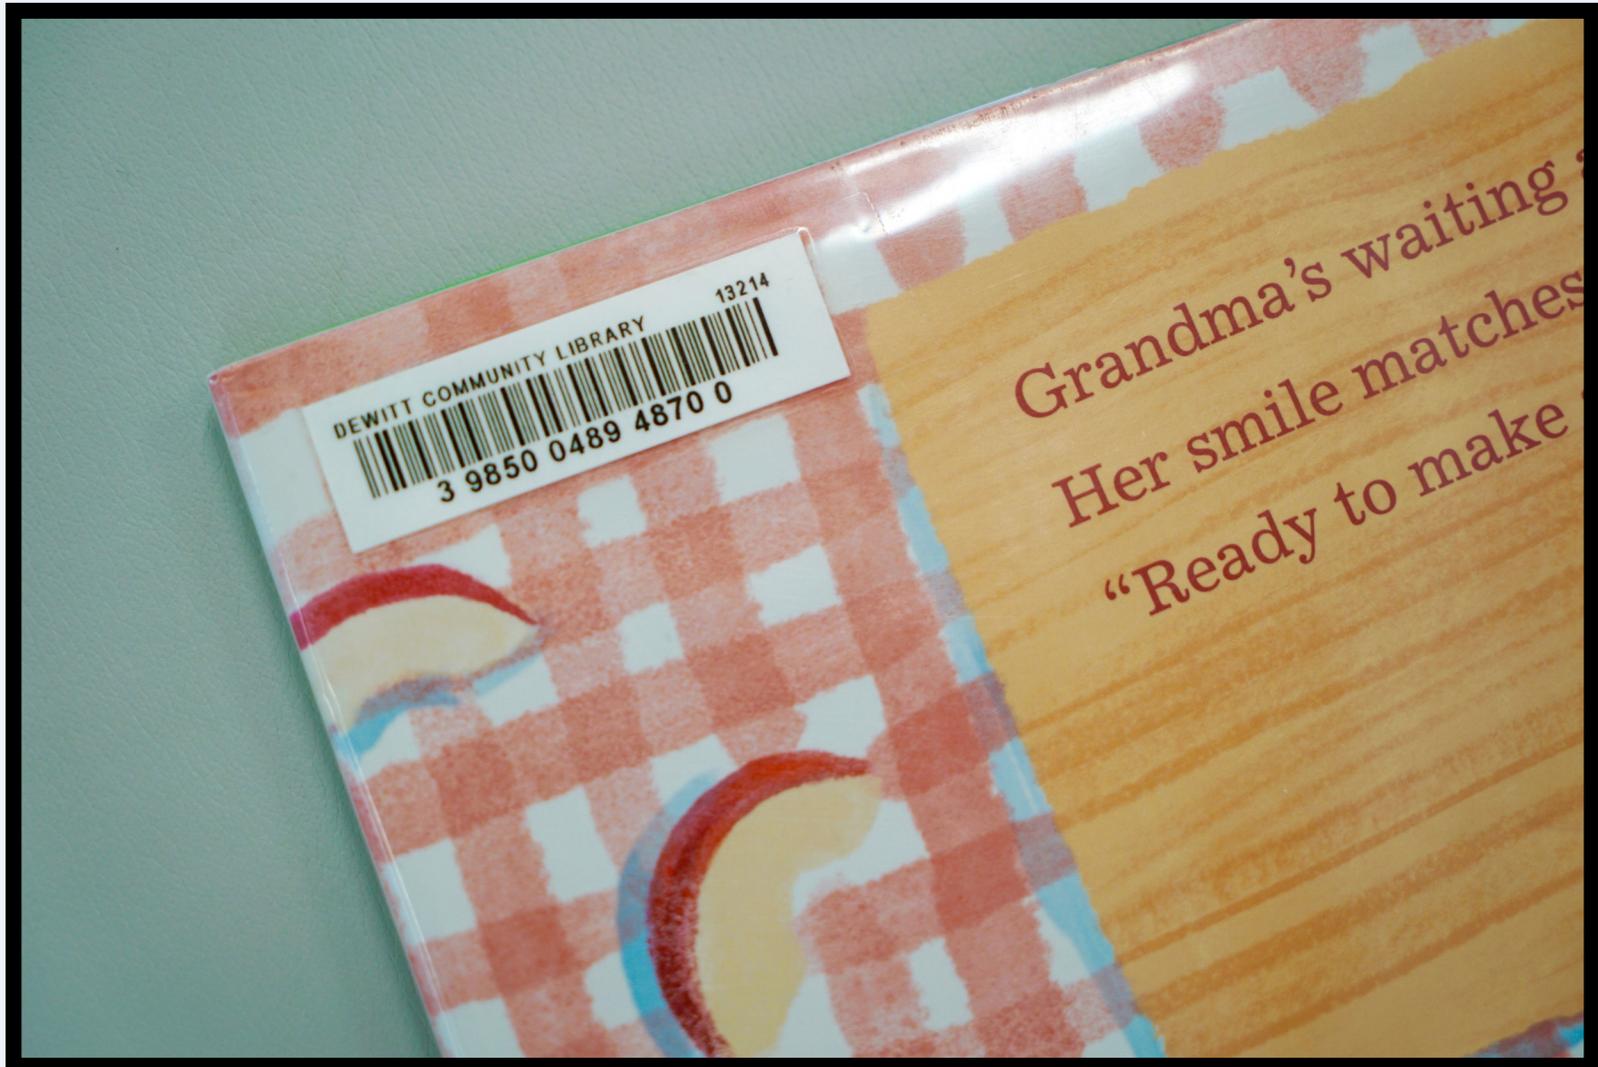

Video Games

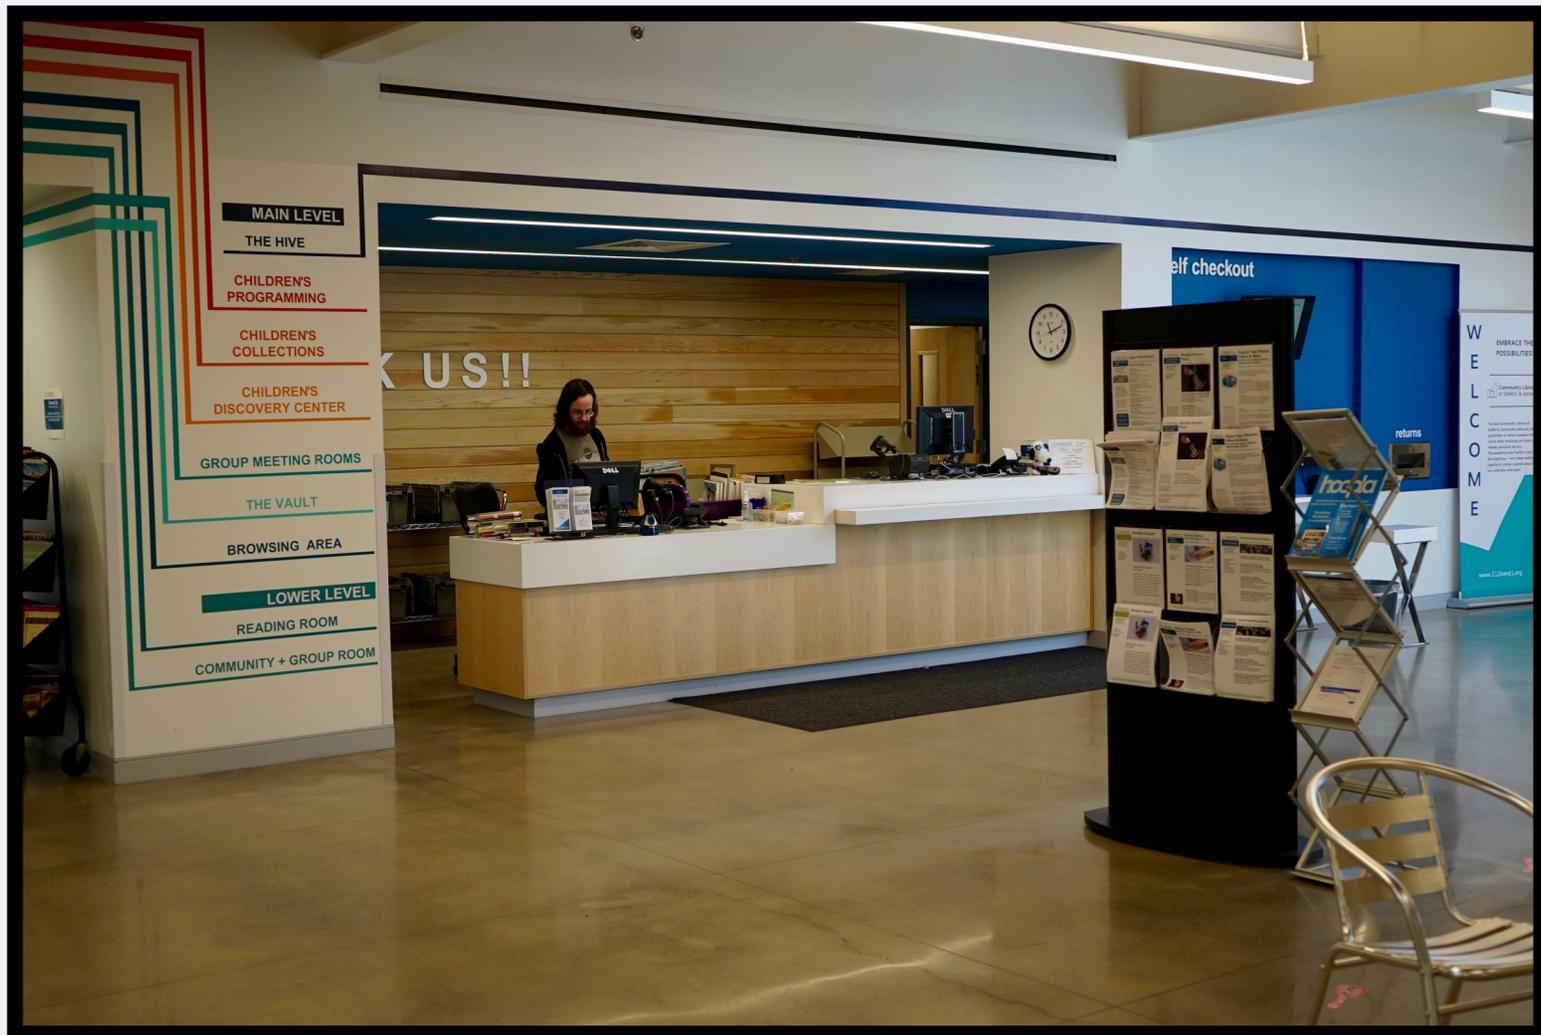

Everything in the library is labeled and grouped by type, so I can search for what I want.

Each item also has a barcode and a stamp so it is easy to know that it belongs to our library.

When I am ready to leave, I bring the items I want to take home to the information desk in the lobby.

At the information desk, I will take out my library card. This is a library card.

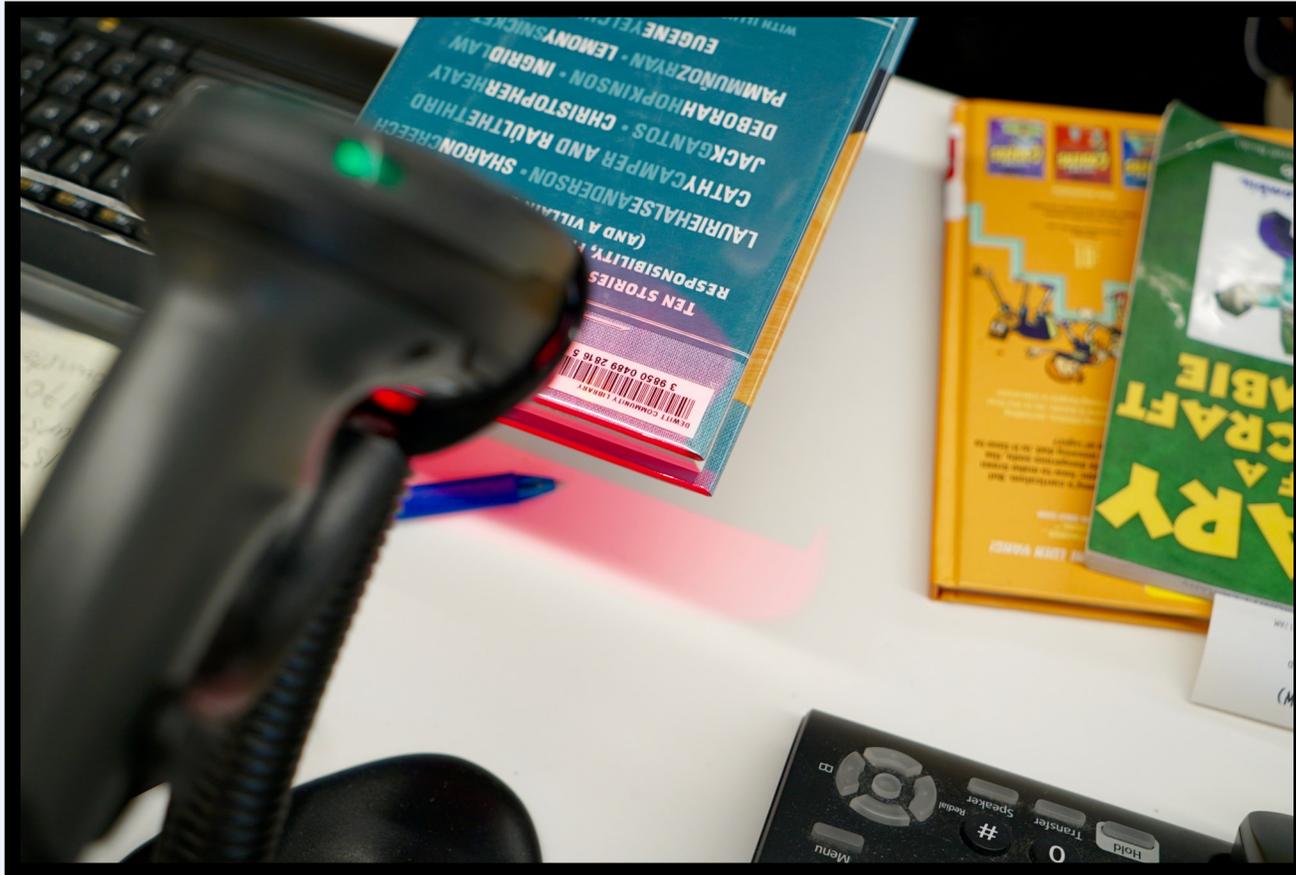

I may need to wait in line for someone to help me at the information desk.

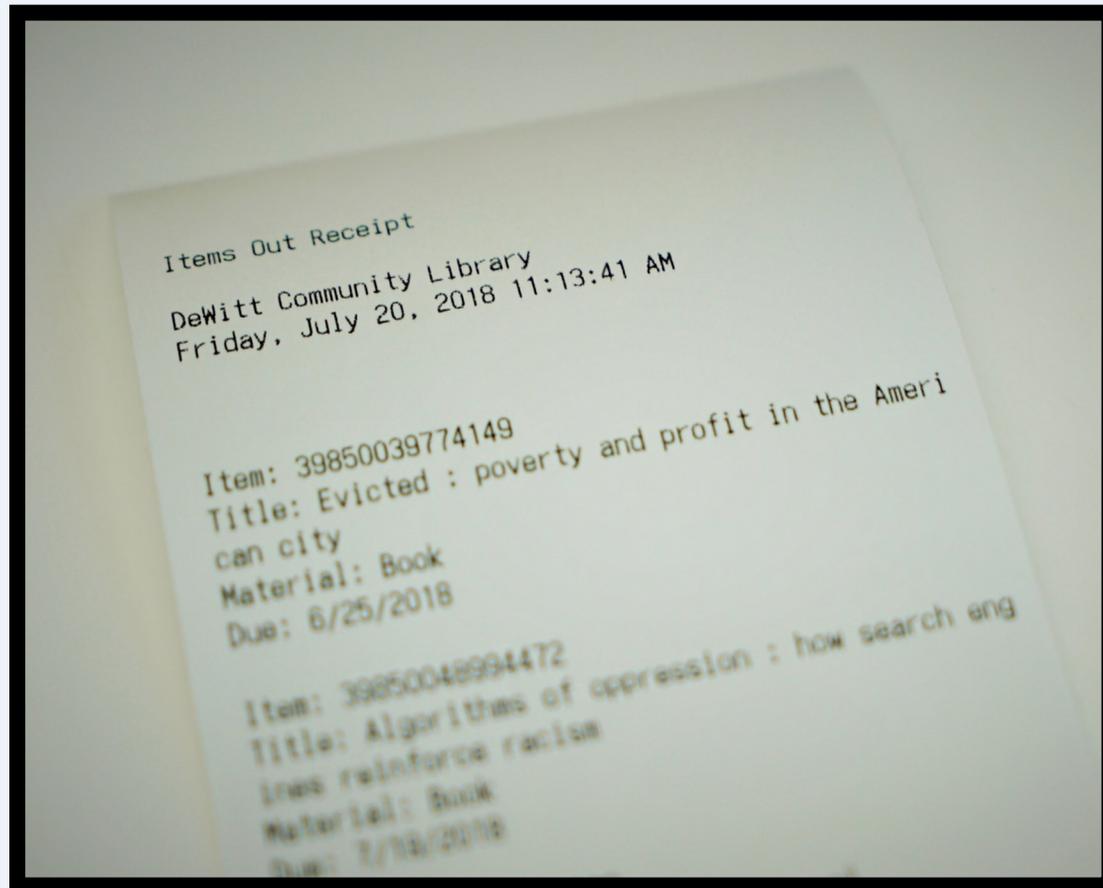

When the staff member is free, I give them my items and my library card .

I wait for the staff member to scan my books and other items.

Then, I take my library card, my items,
and my receipt from the staff member.

My receipt lets me know when my books and other items need to be returned to the library.

Now, I can bring my items home!

I can come back to the library another day.
Goodbye, library!
